

Montague Road

The riverine rainforest will create outdoor spaces offering, light and shade, prospect and refuge, and mystery and delight.

Montague Road is a residential high rise development in Brisbane's West End, in close proximity to the Brisbane River. Landscape design is inspired by native riverine rainforest. Blending the new urban built form with the original native vegetative character will provide a sense of place that is sympathetic to the site's history and future use.

