

Newstead Circle on the Park

In a controlled manner, plants will grow in a variety of incidental locations, maximizing amenity and visual interest on the ground plane and on the vertical landscape.

It is proposed that this future development at Newstead, Brisbane, includes a mix of residential, services, and commercial and creative industries. Embracing the notion of productivity, the landscape will provide productive planting and opportunistic planting.